Hello Cat Driver!

Summer is rapidly approaching. The days have been growing longer and hotter. Several of our members have gone north to wait out the heat or in various other directions in search of adventure. Lars Lindell has taken a trip across the "pond" to Scotland; Jim and Anita McGrath have returned to Canada; Robert "Mac" Ballard is in Michigan - enjoying auto museums and events; Ken Enborg and Kris are in Michigan too; Sue and Gary Hagopian went to West Virginia for a race; and I am writing to you from the "Southernmost Point," Key West, FL, enjoying the historical sites and luke-warm water with my pup, Guinness (yes, like the beer). Guinness is having a great time, although she tries to stay in the shade or A/C as much as she can! Some pictures of our trip are below...we'd LOVE to see pictures of what YOU are doing, or better, we'd love to hear about what you're doing! Please send me your articles for the Cat Tales segment of our newsletter. We recently read an article from Gary Hagopian and are soon to share an article from our new friend Anthony LoBalbo, who has had his article published in JCNA's Jaguar Journal.

RECENT OUTINGS

Those of you who were still in town in June hopefully had the opportunity to join JCOF President Jay Hixson on the tour of the Daytona International Speedway, followed by lunch at the Brickyard Lounge and Grill. Robert Delmar had this to say about the event: "many THANKS [to Jay] for leading us on yet another place we might never have been but will definitely want to return." If you were not able to attend, please click the link here or the button at the bottom of the page to visit the Fun Photos tab on our website to see what you missed.

May was another exciting month for JCOF members lucky enough to be in town! Jay Hixson, our Rally Master Extraordinaire (and President), led a group of intrepid cat drivers through scenic "Old Florida" backroads, to another hidden gem for the luncheon meeting at Corky Bell's, in Palatka.

Sadly, I was in Key West during both the May and June meetings. If you attended, please email me any pictures and stories you'd like to share!
